

Violent and gruesome advertisements for movies, crime shows (CSI Miami etc) during family t.v times must be banned. Our children are beig forced to see these images multiple times while watching programming that is family oriented and appropriate for them. Let's give commercials the same ratings as the shows they are interrupting.